Grand Secretary

Indianapolis, Indiana.

April 8, 1924.

Mr. William Cunningham, Secretary,
Kouts, Indiana.

Dear Sir & Brother:

In reply to your letter will say that we are sending four Bulletins to each lodge without charge. We are also sending the Bulletin free of charge to any of the members that will send their address to us on a post card.

This publication is issued from this office without any cost to the Grand Lodge excepting the printing and mailing and is no extra expense attached as the Grand Secretary has added this work to his office without adding any extra help. We are here for the purpose of boosting Odd Fellowship and help lodges in doing all in our humble way that we can to advance the interests and principles of our order.

With Best Wishes to you and the boys, I am,

Fraternally yours,

Dewey Niccum, Beacon Lodge, No. 320, Converse, Nov. 2, 1923, for conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow.

Otto Arthur, by Maumee Lodge, No. 885, Maumee, Oct. 29, 1923, for operating a still and manufacturing intoxicating liquor.

Jas. Kitzen, by Harris Lodge, No. 644, Indianapolis, Nov. 12, 1923, for receiving stolen goods.

B. H. Townsend, of McCarty Lodge, No. 233, Plainfield, Dec. 21, 1923, for getting money under false pretense.

John S. Christie, of Monroe Lodge, No. 2, Madison, Nov. 8, 1923, for conduct unbecoming and Odd Fellow.

Grover Pittman, of Stone Exel Lodge, No. 670, Nashville, Oct. 30, 1923, for selling intoxicating liquor to minors.

Daniel D. Sloan, of Princeton Lodge, No. 64, Princeton, Nov. 27, 1923, for intoxication.

Samuel L. Stevens, of Northwestern Lodge, No. 807, Indianapolis, Dec. 19, 1923, for mistreating his daughter by physical assault.

George W. Clark, of Jackson Lodge No. 552, Jacksonburg, Dec. 27, 1923, for selling intoxicating liquor.

George Rush, of Rosewood Lodge, No. 889, Smithville, no date given, for trying to obtain money through false pretense.

Herman Crumpacker, of New Waverly, No. 434, New Waverly, Dec. 28, 1923, for appropriating money due lodge to his own personal use.

J. C. Fritzlan, of Carlisle Lodge, No. 50, Carlisle, Dec. 24, 1923, for conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow.

Howard Dill, of Gas City Lodge, No. 718, Gas City, Jan. 3, 1924, for the embezzlement and unlawful use of lodge funds.

Chas. O. Faulkner, of Dewey Lodge, No. 753, Jasonville, April 14, 1924, for non-support of children.

Ted Armstrong, of Bicknell Lodge, No. 527, Bicknell, April 17, 1924, for murder.

W. H. Harrison, of Brightwood Lodge, No. 655, Indianapolis, April 15, 1924, for child neglect and conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow.

SUSPENSIONS

The following named brothers have been suspended:

Sam E. Logsdon, by Alma Lodge, No. 336, Boonville, Nov. 12, 1923, eighteen months for drunkenness and conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow.

Harrold Yates, by Sanborn Lodge, No. 468, Sanborn, Nov. 14, 1923, eighteen months, for having a still in his possession.

Rupert Spaulding, by Shawswick Lodge, No. 177, Bedford, Nov. 26, 1923, eighteen months for embezzlement.
Charles Salmon, by Shoals Lodge, No. 343, Shoals, Nov. 20, 1923, six months for drunkenness.
Elmer V. McCormack, of Lafayette Lodge, No. 15, Lafayette, Dec. 18, 1923, twelve months for conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow.
George Mullens, of Dewey Lodge, No. 753, Jasonville, Feb. 16, 1924, eighteen months for intoxication.
Charles E. Fisher, of Stilesville Lodge, No. 538, Stilesville, March 18, 1924, eighteen months for drunkenness.

Fraternally,

GP Bonwarren
Grand Secretary

GRAND LODGE OF INDIANA

OFFICE OF
W. H. LEEDY
GRAND SECRETARY

INDIANAPOLIS

July 1, 1922.

DEAR BROTHERS:

I know that during the warm weather which we are now experiencing, we are apt to become careless or indifferent with reference to our lodge work. That being true, I feel that this is the time when we should put forth our best efforts to keep up interest in the rank and file of the Order.

Reports are coming in, and while they show that during the term ending July 1st, large numbers were admitted and initiated into the Order, yet there were so many Brothers permitted to be dropped for non-payment of dues, that our gains are going to be small. I want to again remind you of the importance of holding on to the old members. Make your meetings so interesting that members will not want to become delinquent.

I also want to remind you that at the last session of the Grand Lodge, the Schuyler Colfax Memorial Committee was granted the right to collect from each subordinate lodge the sum of $1.00 per member for the purpose of defraying the expenses of erecting and constructing the Schuyler Colfax Memorial to be used as a dormitory for the children at the Home at Greensburg. One-half of this to be paid on or before January 1st, 1923, and the other one-half on or before July 1st, 1923. As soon as you have raised your portion or any part thereof, you may send it to Mrs. Laura B. Morris, Secretary of the Building Committee at Frankfort, Indiana. I know that each lodge and every Odd Fellow in this jurisdiction will heartily support the Building Committee in this work.

Trusting that we may all work together for the higher principles of Odd Fellowship, so our Order in this State may go onward and upward, I remain,

Fraternally yours,

Geo. E. Hershman
Grand Master.

July 21, 1922.

BROTHERS:

You are beginning a new term. The success of your lodge depends largely upon your officers and I hope your officers will decide to make this the most prosperous term you have ever had. Hold regular meetings; visit the sick; advertise your lodge by living Odd Fellowship within and without the lodge room. We are initiating enough men but we are dropping too many for non-payment of dues. Give this your special attention. Call on these members personally and let them know that you are interested in them. Make your meetings interesting and your lodge room comfortable.

I am returning to lodges a lot of overpaid Grand Lodge dues. Your membership has nothing to do with the amount of Grand Lodge dues you pay. You pay on $1.30 per quarter on the actual amount you collect for dues. Divide the actual amount of dues collected by the actual amount of dues you charge for six months, then multiply by $2.60, (six months at $1.30 per quarter). 10% of this amount is what you owe the Grand Lodge for dues. Then add 10% of amount received for cards, initiation and degrees.

Brothers, get busy and lend a helping hand to your Grand Master who is doing his utmost for you and Odd Fellowship. If I can help you, call on me; I am at your service.

Fraternally yours,

G. P. Bornwasser
Grand Secretary.
